

My Dearest Yulí,

I know leaving is hard, but I have always believed in you, I know it will be difficult for your father but know that in time he too will come to know this was the right choice.

You have a great purpose, to make the world a better place, and I know with your strength and intelligence you will be able to accomplish anything you set your mind to.

Head to Zul, this will provide you with a myriad of pathways forward, and if you need any help find Suka Orinn, she is someone I trust and I know she can help you sharpen your skills and train.

Find some friends and do not be afraid to take the longer path to your goal this life is yours to fulfill.

Love,

Your Mother, Sora
